Incident Simulation Workshop

Are you prepared to efficiently respond to a security incident?

AIG Cyber Risk Consulting's Incident Simulation Workshop is designed to help you ensure your incident response (IR) plan will help your organization respond efficiently when a security incident occurs and to help you better maximize your benefit under your cyber insurance policy with AIG. Services are provided by our AIG cyber consultants, who average 20+ years of experience in cyber security.

Workshop Preparation

- Client and AIG consultant identify two to three incident types to simulate in the workshop
- AIG consultant reviews existing client IR plan and supporting materials
- Client completes workshop preparation checklist

Workshop Delivery

- Review AIG claims best practices
- Conduct the identified incident simulation exercise tailored to your organization
- Conduct lessons learned discussion and provide feedback

Recommendations

- Final report delivered within 10 business days and includes:
  - Executive summary
  - IR plan recommendations
  - Workshop feedback
  - Other recommendations

Having an incident response plan and trained incident response team can reduce incident costs by 11%<sup>1</sup>
